Founded in 1982, Eva's Village is a non-profit, comprehensive behavioral health and social service organization with a mission to provide care and support for people struggling with poverty, hunger, homelessness and addiction.

FOOD

Our Community Kitchen serves nearly 500,000 meals a year to indigent and working poor individuals and 3 meals a day to the men, women and children living in our Village

HOUSING

Emergency Overnight Shelters and Transitional Housing provide safe haven for nearly 500 men, women, and mothers with children each year

RECOVERY

Eva's Village Apartments offer 50 units of affordable housing with supportive services

Halfway House & Outpatient Programs serve 1,000 men and women annually, who are working to recover from addiction

Hope Residence supports mothers working to overcome addiction while they live with and care for their children, including on-site childcare and after-school education programs

MEDICAL

Recovery Community Center serves the Paterson community through peer-led, workshops, meetings, and activities to support long-term recovery

Our Medical and Dental Clinic delivers more than 3,400 patient visits annually

EDUCATION

Mental Health Program integrates mental health services treating co-occurring disorders

Opioid Overdose Recovery Program connects hospitalized overdose survivors with addiction treatment and support

TRAINING

Workforce Development Program assists Halfway House clients with resumes, interview skills, and job readiness

The Culinary School at Eva's Village draws students from the Paterson community, including Eva's alumni, who enroll in the 6-month training program - with a 96% job placement rate in the culinary industry
